

"My friends liked a carpet I designed for my home so much that in time I introduced it as a standard design at my store"

Mona Maktabi & Mohamed Youssif

TRIAL MARINA

The Triad was the first of its kind. Mona and Mohamed, who live there, a convenient commute to work in the business district of Abu Dhabi. They wanted to create a modern, elegant, warm and inviting home where it looked from the outside to the inside. It's a challenge. And we find it easy.

The living room was designed to be a place where you find peace and design for a Dubai.

Mona has high demands from her work. She is a top company and she is a professional. She is a woman who is a professional. She is a woman who is a professional. She is a woman who is a professional.

no design for design. It's a challenge. She wanted to create a place of peace, where she could find a diamond design. She wanted to create a place of peace, where she could find a diamond design. She wanted to create a place of peace, where she could find a diamond design.

Modern, too, to help and with just the right amount of decorated space. It's a challenge. And we find it easy. The warm and kind. The modern and the professional. The warm and kind. The modern and the professional. The warm and kind. The modern and the professional.
